

Techniques Magazine, Virginia

April 2006

Virtual Business Curriculum

Knowledge Matters has announced the release of Virtual Business Management 2.0, its latest upgrade in a suite of business curriculum software. The standards-based program is designed to give students interactive learning experiences as virtual business owners, managers and supervisors. The new version adds a multiplayer capacity that motivates cooperative thinking and team strategy.